Tche & Tre continue football at BG

By Evan Gaston

Their childhood dream has now turned into a reality. Seniors Trevon Raymore and Tche Leroux will continue their football careers at Bowling Green State University. They have both been playing since a young age and they never imagined themselves coming as far as they have.

In the fall they signed their letters of intent to attend Bowling Green State University.

They share some of the same views as to why they play the game, such as it is an “adrenaline rush” and that it helps to make friends by having teammates to bond with.

These two players were an important part of the final four team of 2018 and this memory is the highlight of their careers, they both said. Both of these players have people inspiring them to play to the best of their ability. Family is first for both of them, but Leroux looks up to Aaron Donald and Raymore looks up to Adrian Peterson.

They would also like to thank their coaches for pushing them and making them both better men. Raymore is not sure what he wants to go to school for yet but Leroux is going for sports management to be an athletic director.

Senior artists show their abilities

Abby Marchione

What inspires you as an artist? I like to draw whatever is on my mind, and I also used to watch my sister draw all the time which made me want to draw too.

When did you start creating art? Probably when I was 2.

What is your favorite medium to work in, and why? Acrylic because it dries fast.

What is your favorite piece that you've ever created? My silk-screen shirt from prints class junior year.

What lesson will you take with you that you learned from art? You need to be patient; if you aren't patient with your artwork it will look rushed and won't look how you want it to.

Are there any themes prevalent within your art, or, subject/thing you enjoy placing within your art? I like to paint with different shades of blue

Are you going to continue creating art after your high school career has come to an end? Yes, on my own time.

Petra Montana

What inspires you as an artist? The ability to create anything with anything.

When did you start creating art? I have been creating art since kindergarten.

What is your favorite medium to work in, and why? Watercolor. It can be easily stylistic.

What is your favorite piece that you've ever created? My contemporary acrylic painting (Neo Nineteenth Century).

What lesson will you take with you that you learned from art? Try new things. Experimenting with different styles and mediums is the best part of art.

Are there any themes prevalent within your art, or, subject/thing you enjoy placing within your art? I really enjoy drawing people and faces.

Are you going to continue creating art after your high school career has come to an end? Yes, but mostly for fun.

Ilaya Edington

What inspires you as an artist? Seeing my dad and grandma creating art.

When did you start creating art? In school when I was younger.

What is your favorite medium to work in, and why? Acrylic because it dries fast and it is personally easy for me to work with.

What is your favorite piece that you've ever created? My apron that I painted with acrylic paint.

What lesson will you take with you that you learned from art? Art takes time.

Are there any themes prevalent within your art, or, subject/thing you enjoy placing within your art? Bright colors.

Are you going to continue creating art after your high school career has come to an end? Most likely but I will do it on my own.

Sophie Nawalaniec

What inspires you as an artist? Things that are bright-colored in nature; I like to draw cool photographs too.

When did you start creating art? Probably kindergarten.

What is your favorite medium to work in, and why? colored pencil because I like blending colors together.

What is your favorite piece that you've ever created? My notebook paper drawing.

What lesson will you take with you that you learned from art? Probably patience and time management.

Are there any themes prevalent within your art, or, subject/thing you enjoy placing within your art? I like drawing anything in nature.

Are you going to continue creating art after your high school career has come to an end? Yes. I'm not pursuing a career in art, but it's a fun pastime.
